

AGUINALDO BOTTLED UP

His Secretary and an Escort of 170 Bolomen Captured

WAR IS NEARLY OVER

Surrender of Tarlac and Shutting in Aguinaldo Will End Rebellion

GEN. LAWTON PUSHING WEST AND GEN. WHEATON EAST.

Semi-Circle of Union Troops About the Retreating Filipino Leader—If He Escapes Them He Will Have to Swim For it Towards Hong Kong—Natives Deserting Him in Troops and Giving Up Their Arms to MacArthur's Men—The Capture Of Tarlac.

Manila, Nov. 13.—[Special Cablegram]—Reports from General MacArthur, Young and Lawton convey the impression that Aguinaldo and his army are bottled up. The slippery Filipino leader is believed to be in a tight place and his capture is looked for at any time.

Close of the War at Hand
Manila, Nov. 13, 1 p. m.—[Special Cablegram]—The American troops have practically closed the trap by which it is intended to catch Aguinaldo and his army.

The first fish landed in this net is Aguinaldo's secretary and one hundred and seventy-two Bolomen, his escort. This capture was made by Colonel Hayes, near Carranglan, from which place the trail leads over the mountains. The Bolomen captured were a part of the force of four hundred.

Gen. Lawton with a part of his force is at Carranglan. His advance under Gen. Young at Tayug and San Nicholas, is stretching in a semi-circle far to the west, towards the Gulf of Lingayen, from whence Gen. Wheaton's expedition started last week.

It is believed that Wheaton's and Young's men joined hands in completing the line on the north.

Gen. MacArthur started for Tarlac this morning, the town having been taken yesterday. The troops are in good spirits and condition.

A significant incident of MacArthur's advance was when twenty-nine rebels came into his camp, surrendering their rifles and receiving pay therefor.

This and the Tarlac surrender, it is confidently believed, marks the end of any organized insurrection.

COL. WESSELS MAKES A HAUL

Insurgent Camp Is Captured With All Supplies and Prisoners.

Washington, Nov. 13.—[Special Cablegram]—Gen. Otis cables from Manila as follows: "Col. Wessels with a squadron of the Third cavalry captured the insurgent food supply depot at Tayug. He took several hundred thousand pounds of rice, three thousand pounds of flour, seventy-five hundred pounds salt and other provisions, insurgent uniforms, new, many blankets, also a number of insurgent officers, sixty-nine Spanish prisoners, and two Americans. The indications are that the insurgents will not escape their mountain capital at Bayombong; without great difficulty and loss, if at all. Our troops suffered great hardships and performed severe service, but are reported to be in excellent condition. The enterprise and indomitable will displayed by the officers has never excelled."

AQUINALDO DESERTS TARLAC.

The Place Is Now Occupied by the American Forces.

Manila, Nov. 13, 8:25 a. m.—Colonel Bell's regiment, the Thirty-sixth infantry, and a small force of cavalry entered Tarlac last night without opposition.

Where Aguinaldo, with his army and the so-called government, have fled is a mystery.

General MacArthur took Bamban Saturday. This is supposed to be the strongest position held by the Filipinos except Tarlac.

The brief accounts of the engagement received indicate that the rebels fought according to their recent tactics, retreating after firing a few volleys. One officer of the Thirty-sixth Regiment is the only American reported killed.

General MacArthur began his advance at daylight. Colonel Smith, with the Seventeenth Regiment, on the right, Major Bell's command and the Thirty-sixth on the left, and the Ninth in the center. Colonel Smith encountered a small force at 6 o'clock, easily dispersing the rebels. Major Bell secured a position on the mountain from which he poured an enfilading fire from rifles and Hotchkiss guns upon the first line of the enemy's trenches. The Filipinos stood the fire for twenty minutes and then retreated to the mountains. General MacArthur entered Bamban at 10 o'clock and Colonel Smith occupied Capas, the first town beyond.

General Lawton's headquarters are still at Cabanatuan. General Young, with his cavalry and infantry, is still pushing ahead through the fearful mud, but his exact whereabouts is not known.

HORSE SHOW IS OPEN

Fashionable Annual Event in Gotham Is Thrown Open to the Public.

New York, Oct. 13.—A smart bugler, in the tightest of breeches and the brightest of tops, stepped upon the platform in the middle of the tumbark expanse at Madison Square garden at 9 o'clock this morning and tooted upon a shiny horn. That blast opened the fifteenth horse show, and fashion is off on its winter gallop. Today was given over, as is the custom, to a general inspection of the apartments, and parade of the uniformed attendants, and a catering of a few of the candidates. The management served to between 200 and 300 invited guests a luncheon which was practically a dinner.

It was a spick and span garden about which all sauntered after the luncheon was finished. The colors of the association, yellow and black—are festooned from all possible corners, and all along the faces of the boxes and galleries.

The ring is the best the garden has ever known. Underneath its dressing of tumbark is a heavy course of loam, brought from Sheepshead Bay.

The majority of the horses to be exhibited had come to their quarters before sundown last night.

IN THE FROZEN NORTH

Message From Explorer by Carrier Pigeon—Czar Back in Russia.

Moscow, Nov. 13.—A dispatch by a carrier pigeon has been received at Archangel from the duke of the Aruzzi nephew of King Humbert, who is conducting an expedition in search of the north pole. The dispatch says the expedition has reached a point within 550 miles north of the pole, latitude 81 north—about the southern limit of Franz Joseph land. All on board the Polar Star are reported well.

The czar and czarina have returned to Russia from Germany, and are now at Skienewics castle, Poland, where the grand master of the hounds is organizing a shooting expedition. The Grand Dukes Michael, Nicholas and Vladimir have joined his majesty for the hunt.

THREE BULLETS IN HIS BODY

Peter George a Racine Bartender Shot by Unknown Italians.

Racine, Wis., Nov. 13.—Peter George, a bartender, aged 26, lies at St. Mary's hospital with three bullets in his body—one in the back, another in the shoulder and a third in the elbow. He was shot by one or two Italians, whose names are not known and who are still at liberty.

George and the two Italians became involved in a quarrel early yesterday morning and went outside to settle it according to prize ring rules. A few moments later a shot was heard and George was found in the road, badly wounded. The two Italians had disappeared and the officers have not been able to find them, but it is known they belong at Milwaukee and are banana peddlers.

George is badly hurt and the chances are that he will die. He is unmarried. He has lived in this country all his life.

Frank Dooley, aged 16, son of John Dooley one of the best known residents of Racine, was accidentally killed by being run over by a Northwestern train while walking on the track.

MURDERER DEAD IN HIS CELL

White Convicted in Milwaukee Expires From Natural Causes.

Milwaukee, Nov. 13.—Ransom C. Wilts, and old soldier, who was sentenced Saturday to life imprisonment for the murder by poison of Mrs. Mary Edgar, was found dead in the county jail today. He told one of the jailers after he was sentenced that he would never go to prison, and on Saturday he wrote letters to his sisters, leaving them a few trinkets. The circumstances suggested suicide, but a post mortem showed that he died from natural causes.

GOLD FOUND ON OHIO FARMS

Work to be Commenced Soon in Carroll County.

Staubenville, Ohio, Nov. 13.—Gold mining will be active in Carroll county shortly. Major Schott of Colorado has arrived at the James Van Meter farm, where the prospective mine is located. Assays have been made of different specimens of the dump and gold found ranging from $12 to $200 per ton. Machinery has been ordered and work will commence soon.

CONVENTION WILL BE HELD EARLY

REPUBLICAN LEADERS FAVOR MEETING JUNE 6 OR 13.

Issues May be Such as to Require a Campaign of Education—Chicago Making No Effort to Secure the National Gathering—Aspirants Are Numerous.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.—Soon after congress meets the Republican National committee will hold its regular meeting to fix the time and place of holding the next national convention. Under the rules the call must give six months notice of the holding of the convention. If the committee meets about December 15 it will be possible to hold the convention any time after June 15. The probability is the convention will be called to meet June 6 or 13.

Four years ago there was a movement for a late convention, it being argued that the effect of a long campaign on the business of the country every four years was disastrous. The same movement is expected this year, and for the same reason. From a political standpoint, however, most of the leaders favor an early convention, and they point to the last campaign as a striking evidence of the need of time for organization and education.

Want Times to Meet Issues

The McKinley campaign in its inception was based on the tariff. The silver question was sprung by the democrats. The republicans were well prepared with documents on free trade and protection, but actually had to create a literature on the money question. The first survey of the field showed Michigan, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska and Minnesota honeycombed with the silver heresy and Ohio, Illinois and other states at least tainted.

It is believed if the election had been held the first week in Sept. Bryan might have been elected. The campaign of education was inaugurated, the fallacies of 16 to 1 were successfully exposed, and the republicans won.

Now the leaders believe time is necessary for the issues to be made and met. They are ready for protection or finance, but if Bryan, who is looked on as a quicksilver orator, slides off on the expansion issue, time will be required to get the matter properly before the people. For these reasons the republican leaders favor a convention between June 1 and 15, and the sentiment appears so general that it is hardly safe to predict a convention either earlier or later than the two weeks mentioned.

Place of Holding the Convention

Members of the national republican committee seem to be in the dark regarding the place of holding the convention. Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, New York, Boston, Cleveland, Milwaukee, Detroit, St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, and San Francisco have already filed claims formally or informally. Of these Philadelphia, Kansas City, and San Francisco are the most energetic. Chicago does not seem to want either of the great party conventions.

WOULD ANNEX HAWAII

Senator Cullum Will Press His Bill When Congress Meets Next Month.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.—"Early in the coming session of congress I will reintroduce my bill for the annexation of Hawaii and will press its passage," said Senator Cullum today. Continuing the senator said:

"It will be remembered that a congressional committee of which I was a member visited Hawaii and made a full report. The demands of public business, growing out of the Spanish war, in connection with the crowded calendar which always characterizes a short session of congress like the last, made it impossible to take up the Hawaiian question."

"The people of the island have demonstrated their capacity for self-government, are already thoroughly Americanized and understand the conditions which have delayed action. They are patiently awaiting the pleasure of congress, and, in my opinion, are entitled to the first consideration. I believe we should dispose of Hawaiian annexation before we take up any of the new insular possessions."

BETTER CIVIC RULE WANTED

Important Session of the National Municipal League.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 13.—The fiftieth annual meeting of the National Municipal League will be held here in the Board of Trade rooms on Wednesday Thursday and Friday of this week. The topics to be discussed are of vital importance to American municipalities and cover a variety of subjects of vital importance for all interested in good city government.

The most important business of the coming meeting will be the discussion of the "Municipal Programme," which aims to present a form of government under which cities will be least subject to corruption and offering the best advantages for substantial growth. It also includes a corporation act, proposing radical changes in present municipal systems, providing for municipal ownership and operation of franchises and a plan of reform of the civil service.

IT IS A TRIUMPH FOR THE REPUBLIC

ACTION OF FRENCH SENATE HIGH COURT SATURDAY.

It is Not Legal But Was Necessary to Stop the Present Internal Disorder—A Deplorable Anti-Clerical War is Now in Progress.

Paris, Nov. 13.—The vote of competence to the high court is a strong proof of the stability of the French Republic and a triumph for the Cabinet. While legal opinion is against the vote from a purely legal point of view, it is admitted that vigorous measures, even if stretched as to the legal points, are necessary to stop the present internal disorder.

M. Deroulede, Guérin and Buffet say that the vote is nothing more than they expected. Henri Rochford declares that when he was tried he did not take the trouble to defend himself; that political trials are only travesties on justice.

The government's announcement of amnesty has fallen flat.

Emile Zola has cited Schwartzkoppen and Pannizardi as witnesses at his coming trial in Versailles.

The Waldeck-Rousseau cabinet now stands a chance of living through the exposition of 1900. The raid on the Assumptionist fathers and nuns by the police was the commencement of a fierce anti-clerical movement which will be exceedingly popular in France. A religious conflict cannot be regarded in any other light than deplorable, although the clerical party has merited much of what has befallen it.

M. Etienne, the only public man in France today who realizes that France has ceased to count as a great power, replies to Lord Salisbury's speech attacking his article to the effect that after the Hague Europe had a right to expect England would accept arbitration in the Transvaal dispute. "Europe has not imposed it," says M. Etienne, "and Europe alone will suffer."

PENSION METHODS UNJUST

Commander in Chief of the G. A. R. Takes a Positive Stand.

New York, Nov. 13.—General Albert D. Shaw's speech Saturday night was an earnest plea for more prompt action on pension applications. Gen. Shaw as commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, has taken a positive stand against department delays and a policy which is said to be unjust and humiliating to many applicants for pensions. He takes the ground that the nation means to be generous to the veteran soldiers and those depending upon them, but that department customs to a great extent nullify the pension laws. On this point he said in his address:

"Henceforth veterans should demand equal and exact justice under present enactments along the lines of pensions. Any system of delay, of unjust regulations and unpatriotic evasions must stop, and stop soon, or an angered, sorrowing force of unselfish patriots will ask the reason why in the right way and at the right time."

THIRTY-THREE ARE INJURED

Railroad Laborers Returning From Dinner, In a Collision.

Dannison, Iowa, Nov. 13.—As a result of a wreck which occurred here Saturday on the new line of the Illinois Central, Omaha extension, the town is full of wounded men, there being thirty-three injured in the collision. They are being taken care of in the private houses of the citizens, since the public halls are not numerous enough to hold them all.

There were 180 workmen on four box cars, returning from dinner, when they were met by a gravel train, going at full speed. The cars were entirely destroyed and both engines wrecked. Notwithstanding this none of the workmen were killed. Several are badly injured, but the attending physicians say they will recover.

JAPAN AFTER SHIP IN HURRY

Hastens Work on Big Fighting Machine at Clyde Bank.

London, Nov. 13.—Orders have been received by the builders of the Japanese battleship now in progress of construction at Clyde Bank, to complete the vessel as speedily as possible. The new ship, which is to be one of the largest afloat, is to be finished by January 1, 1900. It is believed that these instructions are the result of increasing tension between Japan and Russia.

FEAR AN INDIAN UPRISING

Six Navajo Indians and One White Man Killed in Arizona.

Flagstaff, Arizona, Nov. 13.—Six Navajo Indians and one white man were killed and one white man wounded in a desperate battle a few miles southeast of here late yesterday evening. The affair has roused the most intense excitement and many fears are expressed of an Indian uprising as a result of the fight.

RUSSIAN FLEET FOR NAGASAKI

Japanese Protest Against Having It Winter Here.

London, Nov. 13.—A dispatch to the Mail from Shanghai says a large Russian fleet intends wintering at Nagasaki. It is thought that the Japanese government will remonstrate against this.

TO MARRY HER CHINESE COOK

Miss Halverson Dismissed From the Canton Mission.

Hongkong, Nov. 13.—Missionary circles in Canton are in a high state of agitation and indignation over the approaching marriage of Susan L. Halverson to an illiterate, unattractive Chinaman, formerly her cook.

Miss Halverson until a year ago was connected with the American mission of the United Brethren in Christ. She was dismissed from the Canton mission on account of her persisting in receiving the attention of this Chinaman. The marriage will be according to Chinese custom, the missionaries refusing to countenance it.

MAY SPAN THE OCEAN

Nikola Tesla's Wireless Telegraph Experiments Said to Be a Success.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Nov. 13.—Communication between New York and the Paris exposition by means of wireless telegraph is promised for next year by Nikola Tesla. The promise is based on a series of experiments successfully conducted here, and the inventor will soon return to New York to continue his work there.

Mr. Tesla opened his experimental station here last May, and for six months he has been patiently at work transforming his ideas into actual operative condition. He came here with the announced intention of making scientific measurements and observations with wireless telegraphy to high altitudes, but until now has kept secret his main purpose. He asserts he has perfected a machine by which communication between New York and Paris will be a comparatively simple matter.

"I have been successful in my experiments beyond anything I ever accomplished," he said. "I am glad I came to Colorado. I am delighted with the results. I am not at liberty to give out the details of my work at this time, but you can say the system of wireless telegraphy has been successfully demonstrated in this altitude, which is 6,000 feet above sea level."

DREYFUS WON'T REST

He Means to Labor Unceasingly For His Final Rehabilitation.

Paris, Nov. 13.—[Special Cablegram]—To a deputation of visiting socialists yesterday afternoon Dreyfus said to Carpentier's "I mean to labor unceasingly for my rehabilitation."

FORECAST OF WEATHER

Chicago, Nov. 13.—[Special Telegram to The Gazette]—The forecast for Wisconsin is as follows:

Probable showers tonight and Tuesday.

BADGERS ARE IN GOOD SHAPE

Preparing For Game With Michigan On Thanksgiving Day.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 13.—Most of the Badger team are back in town today and are in unusually good shape. O'Dea and Pele are a little off color, but aside from these two the men are feeling no ill effects from the Illinois game which they won Saturday by the score of 23 to 0. Michigan's showing against Pennsylvania has brought a realization here that a Thanksgiving day game is going to require a lot of preparation on the part of Wisconsin. The back-field problem will continue to give trouble to the coach for the next few weeks. It that can be worked up to hold its own with the line all should be well. But with the back field playing in the shape it has thus far this season the Michigan game does not hold out a very hopeful result to the cardinal enthusiasts.

JAMES HUME SERIOUSLY ILL

One of the Pioneer Residents of Janesville Near Death's Door.

James B. Hume is seriously ill at his Lian street home as the result of heart trouble and dropsy. His condition today showed no improvement, and attending physicians consider the case of a very serious nature. Mr. Hume is one of the pioneer settlers of the Bower City, the city being but a small village when he first settled here. For eleven years he has acted as treasurer of the Presbyterian church and is a man esteemed by a large circle of friends.

Cactus Most Versatile.

A plant that will furnish you with a toothpick or a pint of water; that has no leaves and yet sometimes weighs a ton; that can live without moisture and blooms in the night; that sometimes is seventy feet high, and again measures a couple of inches—surely the cactus is entitled to be called the wonder of all the growing things on earth.

Wear Them Always.

There are three rings which the queen of England never by any chance removes from her hand. One is the little enamel ring, set with a single diamond, given to her when quite a child by Prince Albert; another is her betrothal ring, a beautiful snake of emeralds, and the third is a plain narrow band—her wedding ring.

BOERS RAIDED A POULTRY YARD

That is About the Best War News Received in London Today

DUTCH POLICE DESERT

Pretoria Advices Report the Dispatch of Troops to the Front

British Made a Sortie and Charged the Boers at the Bayonet Point Losing Seven Killed and Eight Wounded—A Day Later Col. Powell Drove the Boer Forces From a Commanding Position on Which They Were Trying to Plant a Cannon—Boers Lost Heavily.

Their guns were silenced after heavy fighting. The report, coming as it does from natives, is not generally credited.

London, Nov. 12.—[Special Cablegram]—The biggest war news today is contained in the dispatch saying that the Boers had raided a poultry yard at Dordrecht. Pretoria advices dated Nov. 6th say that another Boer command was leaving for the front. Col. Shiel, the German officer captured by the British, says that the Boer plan was to capture Pietermaritzburg, the capital of Natal, and then dictate terms.

London, Nov. 13.—[Special Cablegram]—The war office is in receipt of additional details of some very smart fighting at Mafeking the last of October. On October thirtieth the Boers blew up a portion of the railroad.

North Mafeking, Nov. 13.—[Special Cablegram]—Evidently with the intention of hindering Colonel Plummer, who is approaching from the north to relieve the town, on October 31 the enemy was discovered trying to post cannon on the Kopje, southeast of Mafeking. Colonel Baden Powell sent out a force to prevent the act, and a sharp engagement followed. The Boers lost heavily. The British lost five killed and five wounded.

Tennessee Troops Are in Camp.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 13.—The Tennessee volunteers are encamped on the Presidio hills overlooking California's beautiful golden gate. On Van Ness avenue, during the march from the transport to camp, the troops were reviewed by Gen. Miles and Gen. Shafter, and at the Presidio Adj. Gen. Brandon and Congressman Gaines of Tennessee, told how proud the state was of their record while fighting for the stars and stripes in the Philippines. The regiment will be mustered out Nov. 23.

Says Americans Are Prisoners.

Madrid, Nov. 13.—A private letter received here from Manila says: "Thus far the Americans have advanced only seven miles from the headquarters at Angeles. The Filipinos are running trains on the Manila & Dagupan railway to gather in one place the provisions and arms. They hold many American prisoners, who, with the Spanish prisoners, are well treated. There is a scarcity of food, however, and in that regard the prisoners are the first to suffer."

Decries Delay in Pensions.

New York, Nov. 13.—Gen. Albert D. Shaw's speech Saturday night was throughout an earnest plea for more prompt action on pension applications. Gen. Shaw, as commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, has taken a positive stand against department delays and a policy which is said to be unjust and humiliating to many applicants for pensions. He takes the ground that the nation means to be generous to the veteran soldiers and those depending upon them, but that department customs to a great extent nullify the pension laws.

MURPHY LEAGUE ENDOWED WITH CASH

SEVENTY FIVE DOLLARS WAS PLEGGED YESTERDAY.

At the Meeting it Was Voted to Establish Headquarters in the Bower City—An Entertainment Will Also Be Given—Large Number in Attendance.

Members of the Francis Murphy Temperance League held one of the most interesting and profitable meetings in their history yesterday afternoon at their rooms corner of Milwaukee and River streets. There was a large attendance and not a dull moment manifested itself during the entire meeting. Here is what was accomplished at this meeting:

Seventy-five dollars in cash was pledged in three donations of $25 each. A suite of rooms will soon be opened up in Janesville as headquarters for the members and their friends.

About Thanksgiving time a public entertainment will be given consisting of a musical and literary program.

At 4:15 o'clock the meeting was called to order by the president Dr. James Mills. J. C. Kline led the singing. Mrs. C. L. Clark assisted in the music and rendered a delightful solo. Rev. R. C. Denison, pastor of the Congregational church, gave the main address of the afternoon. He praised the good work of the League and said that it was manifesting itself on all sides. The committee who recently visited Beloit for the purpose of inspecting the work of the Blue Ribbon order made their report. The committee consisted of Al. Smith, Fred Holden and John A. Jones. They strongly favored the opening of headquarters here in Janesville by the renting of a suite of rooms. The committee was then instructed to look for rooms and before the passing of many more days the Francis Murphy League will be quartered in handsome rooms. The intention is to have two rooms. Literature will be kept on hand and a hearty welcome will be accorded to all.

Members of the league were treated to a surprise yesterday when three members came forth with $25 pledges. J. C. Kline pledged $25 in behalf of the Y. M. C. A. of Janesville. Rev. Robert C. Denison in behalf of the Congregational church guaranteed $25 as did Dr. Roberts who recently moved here from Evansville. Before the meeting closed it was decided to give a public entertainment about Thanksgiving time. Mrs. J. B. Day will be engaged to arrange the program. Business men throughout the city will be asked to lend their hearty support to this movement.

Baldness Can be Cured

Just so long as there is a particle of vitality left in the hair roots. The fact that the hair is smooth and shining is no positive proof that the roots beneath are dead. Deep down beneath the skin, hair roots may yet exist, filled with latent vitality, and all that is required to develop them into a beautiful head of hair is the faithful application of the proper agents.

Seven Sutherland Sisters'

preparations furnish the easiest, surest and quickest way to ascertain if there is or is not latent life beneath a head bare of hair. Why not try them?

WILL WATCH STAR SHOWERS

Much Interest Is Being Manifested Throughout This Locality

The star shower tomorrow and Wednesday evenings will no doubt attract the wide attention which so rare an event deserves, and a brief explanation of it may interest our readers. It seems that away back in the astronomical time there used to be a small planet voyaging around the sun not far from our earth. The planet collided with a comet, or some other heavenly body, and went to pieces, (at least that is one of the stories astronomers tell) and the fragments have been floating around the sun, scattered all along the old pathway, ever since. Once every thirty three years the earth, in her voyage around the sun, crosses the track of these fragments. They feel her strong attraction and fall toward her, but on reaching our atmosphere, the friction against the particles of air is so great, due to the tremendous velocity of the fragments (a number of miles per second) that they catch fire and blaze into what we call meteors or shooting stars.

GAVEAN INSTRUCTIVE LECTURE

Universal Brotherhood Was the Subject at All Souls Church.

At All Souls church Saturday evening a lecture was delivered on "Universal Brotherhood, Organization and Its Work." Charles W. Denick and Lucius H. Cannon of Milwaukee, were the speakers and they handled their subjects in a way that closely demonstrated that both gentlemen were well informed on the topic.

Dr. Warren B. Hill, surgeon of the Trinity hospital and one of the faculty of the Milwaukee Medical college was on the program but he was unable to be present on account of other business. There was not a large number present but those in attendance left much better informed on the subject. The object of the meeting was to encourage the work being done by the Universal Brotherhood Lodge No. 147, of this city.

BIG RAILROADS TO MERGE

Trunk Lines May Be Placed Under a Single Ownership.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Chicago financiers are the moving spirits in a scheme of railroad reorganization and consolidation that is more colossal than any previous project in American railway history. From private eastern advices it is learned that the "big four" in American Steel and Wire interests—John W. Gates, William Edenborn, Isaac L. Elwood and John Lambert—have joined hands with E. H. Harriman and the other members of the famous Harriman-Gould syndicate in a comprehensive plan of campaign which has for its object the consolidation of the leading trunk railways in the United States.

The scope of the plan is said to be not merely one of traffic alliances, but the welding together of actual ownership in a determined effort to uphold traffic rates independent of the interstate commerce commission or other governmental aid.

As a preliminary to complete absorption in this new field it is current rumor that the magnates of the steel and wire trust have already unloaded or are about to unload their large holdings in American Steel and Wire and Federal Steel securities.

Used by British Soldiers in Africa.

Capt. C. G. Dennison is well known all over Africa as commander of the forces that captured the famous rebel Galishe. Under date of Nov. 4, 1897, from Vryburg, Bechuanaland, he writes: "Before starting on the last campaign I bought a quantity of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used myself when troubled with bowel complaint, and had given to my men, and in every case it proved most beneficial." For sale by Smith's pharmacy, next to postoffice, kodak agents.

To Bar American Meats.

Bremen, Nov. 13.—The German Butchers' union issued a circular setting forth the identity of interest that subsists between the butchers and the agrarians. Alliance to oppose the importation of American meats is declared to be necessary. The circular welcomes the proposition of the Austrian union for a continental congress to debate ways and means of barring American meats from central Europe, and adds that the meat-inspection bill in the German reichstag is the field whereon agrarians and butchers must cross swords with the American trust.

Change of Venue for Jester.

Paris, Mo., Nov. 13.—After sitting through five days of argument by the interested attorneys Judge Eby ordered a change of venue to Ralls county in the case of Alexander Jester, charged with the murder of Gilbert Gates in 1871. Jester will be taken to New London at once and the case will come up there at the next term of court.

Propose a Pension for Gomez.

Havana, Nov. 13.—The Patria proposes that ten of the leading municipalities should each give Gen. Gomez $30 a month, as his health is poor and he is in need of funds. The Cuban newspapers are urged to support the proposal, which is "small return indeed for the services of the liberator of Cuba."

DIAMOND'S VICTORY OVER DENTAL BOARD

CASE DISCUSSED AT THE JANESVILLE MEETING.

When the Southern Wisconsin Dental Association Met Here Last May the Dental Board Voted Not to Recognize Dr. Diamond—Defendant Was Here in Person.

When the Southern Wisconsin Dental Association held their annual meeting in Janesville last May, members of the State Board of Dental Examiners also met here. The meetings took place in the Caledonian rooms and were of special interest.

The most important topic under discussion by the dental board was whether the board would recognize the diploma held by a Dr. P. T. Diamond, who it was alleged was a graduate of an inferior college.

Dr. Diamond was in Janesville to look after his own interests. This seemed to make but little difference to the board members who finally voted not to recognize Dr. Diamond as a man deserving a practicing license. The board claimed that he was not suited to practice for the reason that he graduated from a dental college that was not recognized as being first class.

Dr. Diamond then hastened back to Milwaukee and at once commenced a law action demanding recognition at the hands of the state dental board.

The case has ever since been slogging in the courts. Saturday it was decided in favor of Dr. Diamond, and his victory is of great interest to all dentists and dental colleges throughout the country, especially to the Chicago College of Dental Surgery and the Northwestern University Dental school, whose diplomas had been refused registration in Wisconsin. Dr. Diamond is now practicing his profession in Chicago and also holds a position as instructor in the Chicago College of Dental Surgery.

DEMISE OF FORMER MAYOR

Ralph A. Loveland Dies at His Home in Saginaw, Michigan.

Ralph A. Loveland, mayor of Janesville during 1868, died last Thursday at his home in Saginaw, Michigan. The sad news was received by M. G. Jeffris. Mr. Loveland was taken ill on Tuesday with congestion of the brain. Besides a widow he leaves a family of five children. Rufus Royce, a brother of Mrs. M. G. Jeffris, and a former Janesville boy, is a son-in-law of the deceased.

While a resident of Janesville Mr. Loveland was a prominent member of the Baptist church and was also a strong advocate of the temperance question during his administration. He also served two years in the New York state legislature. He was eighty years of age.

The token showed the high esteem in which he is held by employees of the opera house. Those who made the gift were:

H. D. Murdock, J. P. Dwyer, Harry Alvord, Leo M. Brownell, Fred Baker, Collin Samuels, Robert Lightfuss, Fred Thompson, John Geill, Clarence Brown, Prof. Wm. T. Thiele, Frank Parker, E. V. Whitton, Jr., Hugh Hommingsway, Walter Helms, Oscar Servatius, W. Heller, L. Holloway, Fred Yungst, Nicholas Dilzer, Jr.

"For years 'Orangeine' has proved a great blessing in my family."

THE BLACK TERROR.

The following lines, taken from the Toronto Globe, were suggested by the announcement recently made that a general uprising of the Basutos was feared in South Africa. The verses have a touch of power not often found in current poetry:

Every nation in civilization
Will tremble in domos and walls;
The overclouded babe will writhe and cry,
The nursing mother will sob and sigh,
And the veriest coward will dare to die
When the big black thunderbolt falls!

The chief will ask for his heroic plume,
His people will hear his onli;
His men will anthem a savage rune,
They'll beat their tom-toms 'neath the moon,
And the conches they will roar at noon
When the big black thunderbolt falls!

They'll fight the fields with their sounding shields,
A sound that the soul appals;
They'll file their teeth, they will fill their belts,
And the kops, the uks, the vales and yells
Will all be black with their naked pelts
When the big black thunderbolt falls!

Their signal flames will brand their names
On the front of the mountain walls;
The 'yenging tribes will gather fast,
Their battle songs will ride the blast,
And civilization will stand aghast
When the big black thunderbolt falls!

The earth shall hear with a throb of fear
The rush of the circling yell!
In after years old men will tell
How the nineteenth century, praised so well,
Was chained by the neck to the jamb of hell
When the big black thunderbolt fell!

But the Union Jack will dance and nod
When a dauntless nation calls,
To triumph sure our men will plod;
They'll give the people, they'll give the sod,
They'll give a continent back to God
If the big black thunderbolt falls!

Chamberlain's Pain Balm Cures Others.

Why Not You?
My wife has been using Chamberlain's Pain Balm, with good results, for a lame shoulder that has pained her continually for nine years. We have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. One day we saw an advertisement of this medicine and thought of trying it, which we did with the best of satisfaction. She has used only one bottle and her shoulder is almost well. —Adolph L. Russia's New Trade Route.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 13.—Within a few months the Siberian railway will be completed to the Amur coast, and plans are now actively under way for another line from the border of European Russia to the interior of Turkestan. There are 25,000 workers who are deprived of work and there are chances that the plants may not open until after the holidays.

Schley on Isthmian Canal.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 13.—Admiral Schley, in speaking while here of the building of the Nicaraguan canal, said: "I consider it imperative that the canal be built at once. It would then enable us to mobilize our fleets on either coast on short notice and would facilitate our defense in case of war and render the American navy invincible. And then it would open up the way to the orient, where a ready market can be found for our cotton, iron and coal."

Is a Triumph of Republic.

Paris, Nov. 13.—The vote of competence by the high court is a strong proof of the stability of the French republic and a triumph for the cabinet. While legal opinion is against the vote from a purely legal point of view, it is admitted that vigorous measures, even if stretched as to the legal points, are necessary to stop the present internal disorder.

For a National Naval Reserve.

Scrofula, a Vile Inheritance.

Scrofula is the most obstinate of blood troubles, and is often the result of an inherited taint in the blood. S. S. S. is the only remedy which goes deep enough to reach Scrofula; it forces out every trace of the disease, and cures the worst cases.

My son, Charlie, was afflicted from infancy with Scrofula, and he suffered so that it was impossible to dress him for three years. His head and body were a mass of sores, and his eyesight also became affected. No treatment was spared that we thought would relieve him, but he grew worse until his condition was indeed pitiable. I had almost despaired of his ever being cured, when by the advice of a friend we gave him S. S. S. (Swift's Specific). A decided improvement was the result, and after he had taken a dozen bottles, no one who knew of his former dreadful condition would have recognized him. All the sores on his body have healed, his skin is perfectly clear and smooth, and he has been restored to perfect health.

For real blood troubles it is a waste of time to expect a cure from the doctors. Blood diseases are beyond their skill. Swift's Specific.

S.S.S. For The Blood

WINE OF CARDUI

How a Woman Suffers.

HOWELL, IND., Nov. 28
I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.

Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

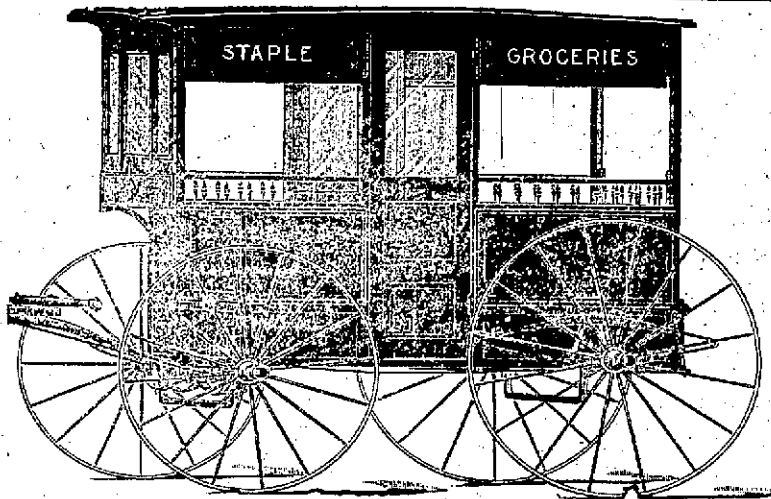

Wine of Cardui

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means agonizing backache, and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues—despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhoea. It means martyrdom—sometimes even death seems preferable. And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout.

It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride, to the wife, to the expectant mother, to those going through the Change of Life, this Vegetable Wine is a blessing.

THE REAL DAVID HANUM.

David Hannum of Homer, N. Y., Just Like the Man in the Book.

Persons who have read Edward Noyes Westcott's widely popular and delightfully entertaining story, "David Hannum," will be interested to know that there was just such a character and that the author painted his droll hero "from the life."

Hannum was the name of the real David. He lived in Homer, a little village of central New York. He was a horse trader, banker, speculator and

DAVID HANNUM, THE REAL DAVID HANUM, philanthropist, just as he is in the book. Every one in Homer knew him and was familiar with his characteristics, and no one had the least difficulty in identifying him with the David in the book. There is even the widowed sister with whom David lived. Her name is Mrs. Gibson. She says she has not read "David Hannum" and that she does not intend to, but she must have glanced through the pages, at least, for she says, "Mr. Westcott put words and spelling into David's mouth such as any one in Homer will tell you David never used."

In Homer they are now telling many stories about Dave for which the author did not find room in his book. Next to being a horse trader, Dave perhaps would rather have been a showman. He had all the instincts of Barnum. In 1893 New York gave a grand exhibition at the famous Crystal palace in Bryant park. Dave found a horse whose mane was so thick that it gave him somewhat the appearance of a buffalo. Hannum bought the animal at once and took him to New York, trimmed his mane so as to heighten the illusion and exhibited him as the "buffalo horse."

Hannum was also one of the men who foisted on scientific men that famous humbug known as the "Cardiff giant." But that is too long a story to tell here. Mr. Westcott did not exaggerate David's charity, which was of the slightest and most generous kind. Hannum began a poor boy, made a fortune and died poor in the end.

SOLDIERS' GOOD ANGEL.

She Meets Them as They Come From the Army Transports.

"The Angel of the Transports" is the title which a New York woman has earned. She is Mrs. George R. Sullivan. She holds no office under the government, nor does she represent any charitable or patriotic organization, but she makes it her business to meet the army transports as they come in loaded with soldiers from faraway posts and sees to the comfort of the boys in blue.

She first gives her attention to those who are sick. These she manages to send to some hospital, where they are properly treated and cared for. The destitute soldiers next receive her attention. She arranges to have them sent to

MRS. GEORGE R. SULLIVAN. their homes. If they have no homes and are friendless, she makes them feel that there is at least one person who is glad to see them back.

In this noble work Mrs. Sullivan is greatly helped by the New York board of trade, whose members she has interested in her efforts. "Were it not for the aid of the board of trade," says Mrs. Sullivan, "I do not know what would have been done, the helpers are so few. This is probably because people do not know the needy condition of many of the men. I wish they could see what deluges of letters I receive from mothers, wives and daughters and from the men themselves."

"The board of trade has never refused transportation to any one whom I have recommended. The men who are detained in this city are provided with shelter at the Olive Tree inn, in Twenty-third street. It is understood that the soldiers while there are not objects of charity, but guests of the board of trade."

OLD PLANTS

That Have Disappeared for Centuries Revived by Chance.

Some twenty-five years ago, when the scorice (or slag) produced by the ancient Greeks in working the silver mines of Lawmur, near Athens, was removed, in order to be reworked by more efficient modern appliances, the seeds of a kind of poppy of the genus Glaucon, which had lain underneath the slag in a dormant condition for at least 1,500 years, sprang up again all over the uncovered ground. Unknown in modern times, this plant was described in the first century of our era by Dioscorides and Pliny, and had disappeared from the face of the globe for fifteen or twenty centuries. The fact that these seeds should have retained their vitality so long seems very extraordinary, but there are other instances quite as remarkable. For instance, raspberry seeds found in 1835 in an ancient tumulus, in a coffin buried thirty feet below the surface, and believed to have been there since the second century, were successfully planted. And in another case seeds of the Polygonum Convolvulus, dug up from the bottom of a sandpit, where they were believed to have been buried for 2,000 years, were still vigorous and produced healthy plants.

Needles Currency There.

The wife of a missionary to Africa gives some amusing details of the mercantile value of certain articles among the natives, needles and cloth ranking highest. They are absolutely current coins. Three needles will purchase one chicken; one needle, two eggs. Old tins and empty bottles are also much in request, old cans taking the place of drinking cups. A few fowl can be had for two yards of cotton or a small piece of cloth.

Tall Cathedral Spire.

It has been decided to establish a meteorological observatory at the top of the great cathedral spire in Ulm, Germany. The Ulm cathedral is one of the most extraordinary in existence, on account of the great size and height of its single spire, which reaches an elevation of 528 feet. Although the great church was begun more than 500 years ago, the spire was not completed until 1890.

"Yes," she answered, for she had overheard him communing with himself about it: "your characterization of it."—Chicago Post.

Caller—"Isn't your little boy rather young to take so much interest in the newspapers?"

Chicago Mother—Yes, he is only 4 years old, but he has the keenest sense of humor I ever saw. He spends nearly all his time reading the editorials in the St. Louis daily papers.—Chicago Daily News.

"What made him to mad?" "He told his wife she had no judgment, and she just looked him over critically from head to foot and said she was beginning to realize it."—Chicago Post.

A Statement by a Well Known Citizen Who Has Found Great Relief by Using It.

The great good that Morrow's Kid-ne-oids are doing in Janesville for all forms of kidney and urinary disorders is being daily told by our citizens. All who use Kid-ne-oids for backache, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness and general debility give hearty expression of the quick relief they obtained.

Mrs. A. H. Taylor, 60 Prospect Ave., whose husband is a painter in Kent's shop, says: "My husband has complained of kidney backache for the past two years. He was also subject to rheumatism in his joints and to spells of dizziness and nervousness. He could not sleep or rest on account of his troubles. He was treated by doctors and took different kinds of kidney remedies, but only temporary relief followed, until he heard of Morrow's Kid-ne-oids and used them according to directions. Since using Kid-ne-oids he has not complained of backache or any of his former troubles, he sleeps well and looks so much better."

Morrow's Kid-ne-oids are not pills, but yellow tablets, and sell at fifty cents a box at all drug stores and at The People's Drug Co.'s store.

FOURTH AVENUE BILLS UNSETTLED

THE COMMON COUNCIL WILL MEET THIS EVENING

When the Question of Settling For the Fourth Avenue Work Will Probably Come Up—Mayor Richardson Will Not Sign the Orders—Laborers Clamoring For Their Pay.

Members of the common council will meet this evening in regular session. Present indications are that there will be plenty of excitement on hand when the Fourth Avenue question again comes up for a hearing. Men who performed labor on that street are clamoring for their pay. They have come to them $197.85 in wages. This money they are unable to obtain from the city for the reason that Mayor Richardson refuses to sign the orders. These laboring men are growing impatient and one has gone as far as to even threaten suit in case he is not paid before the passing of many more days.

Mayor Richardson claims that the city should not be held responsible for the work and that those who had the work in charge should settle the unpaid bill. When the matter comes up this evening the only remedy seems to lie in a two-thirds vote of the council. In case two-thirds of the aldermen vote to pay the bill, City Clerk Badger can endorse the same by writing on them that their payment was endorsed by a two-thirds vote. Many of the aldermen are in favor of paying the bills, while others are not.

Aldermen Peters and Hutchinson of the Second ward say that they are not personally responsible for the work and that the city can not hold them as such. Other business to come before the council will be the regular grind of matter.

The regular monthly municipal court report will be presented. Street Commissioner Fredericks will present several sidewalk bills in cases where the city has gone ahead with work that should have been done by property holders.

DE LONG AS CYCLING JUDGE

Former Janesville Boy Kept Tab on World Famous Riders.

J. D. DeLong, formerly of this city, has been acting as one of the cycle judges at Garfield Park, Chicago, during the past week, when world famed cyclists have been smashing world records. The office was one that was awarded by the cycle board and was a most important one to fulfill.

Major Taylor, the colored cyclist who was in Janesville at that never-to-be-forgotten race meet, was one of the riders at Garfield park. When motor and cyclist had encircled the track several times the word "next time" was given and the terrific race began. All the way around to the last turn Major Taylor stuck like a leech to his pace but there was forced to fall a bit behind and crossed the tape about three or four lengths behind the motor. Nevertheless the race was not hot enough to get him the record. In one of the trials the motor made the round of the track in 0:30 flat, a 1:16 clip.

WOODMEN HERE INTERESTED

The Report of the Head Clerk For Week Ending November 4

Members of Florence Camp in this city will be interested in the report from Woodmen headquarters for the week ending Nov. 4.

The Woodmen head office issued 2,177 benefit certificates and chartered 15 new camps against 1,714 benefit certificates and 24 camps for the same week last year. Five of the 15 new camps chartered are in new territory: Colorado 2, Connecticut 2, and Indian Territory 1.

The expulsions from the society last week numbered three. Of these one was for habitual drunkenness, one for conduct unbecoming a neighbor and one for an appalling list of offenses, enumerated by the clerk of the camp as follows: "Misconduct, dishonesty, embezzlement, absconding, deserting family, attempted suicide and other causes not consistent with probity or right living."

SEVERAL SPEAKERS TOOK PART

Housing Y. M. C. A. Meeting Took Place Yesterday Afternoon in This City

Several speakers took part in the regular Sunday afternoon Y. M. C. A. meeting yesterday held at the association building. There was a good attendance. Those who gave addresses were: G. H. Turnbull, L. M. Ward, J. S. Taylor, J. W. Van Bynum, F. F. Lewis, J. H. Nicholson and C. Sandell. There was good music and the hour spent proved one of much profit.

During the Sunday afternoon there is no better place in the city for a man to spend an hour than right at these meetings where the true hand of fellowship is extended to everyone regardless of creed or color. These meetings are growing in size and interest and no man who is seeking to better himself should miss such an opportunity.

BRICK PAVING WORK HINDERED

This Time It Is the Want of "Brick That Causes Trouble

Owing to the lack of brick the work of paving on West Milwaukee street is now at a standstill and there is no telling just when it will commence. The space to be paved lies between the street car rails and extends from the corner exchange to High street. Three cars of brick have been shipped from Springfield, Ill., but they have as yet failed to reach the city. The work can be completed in two days.

Let your turkey lie in the braize until toward dinner time, and now prepare your delicious sauce. Take a thin slice of two of boiled ham, a vent sweetbread, yolks of two hard eggs, pickled cucumber or two, two or three mushrooms, cut all into small dice and put into as much butter as is suitable for the dish. FORMER LOCAL SALOON KEEPER ER THE DEFENDANT.

Runs a Liquor Joint at Clinton—Edward J. Fonda Says That Kath Gave Him a Severe Pounding—Plaintiff is a Farmer and is Well Known in Janesville.

Herman Kath, a former well known Janesville saloon keeper who for some time operated a saloon on South River street, has been sued by Edward J. Fonda. The plaintiff resides on a farm near Shopiere and is a man well known throughout the county of Rock.

He brings suit in the sum of $5,000 for alleged assault and battery.

Mr. Kath is now a resident of Clinton and at the time of the alleged assault was conducting a saloon in that quiet little town. According to Fonda he alleges that he was badly disfigured by Kath during a fight which took place the early part of the summer in Kath's saloon in Clinton.

Kath alleges that Fonda came into his place of business with the idea that he was going to clean the whole place out in true Western style. After mopping the floor with the bartender, it is alleged that Fonda then locked horns with Kath. Being a well built athlete Kath, it is alleged, soon landed on Fonda's face several blows that reminded him that he has met his Waterloo. Fonda then yelled quit and the men parted.

Fonda on reaching home thought the matter over and decided that his trouble should be aired in court. He then drove to Beloit where he engaged the services of Silas Mezzies. Mr. Kath on learning of Fonda's intention took the first train to Janesville where he engaged the services of Attorney J. J. Cunningham.

The case is on the present calendar of the Rock county circuit court.

WELL ATTENDED WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS MEETING

Held This Afternoon at Grand Army Hall—Serving of Refreshments Followed—Fifty Two Members Now Constitute Local Order—Good Work By Miss Ella L. Wills.

Members of the W. H. Sargent Woman's Relief Corps No. 21 held a special called meeting this afternoon in Grand army hall, corner of Milwaukee and River streets. There was good attendance the occasion being marked by an inspection conducted by Mrs. Myra C. Grinnell of Beloit. Regular corps work was carried out with a vim that clearly demonstrated that the local order is composed of women who take a keen interest in the welfare of their work.

Mrs. Grinnell is a lady well known in Woman's Relief circles and that she is well informed was quite evident to all those who attended the meeting this afternoon. Following the inspection the serving of refreshments took place.

The local corps now has a membership of fifty-two and is in a flourishing condition. Of the local members no one takes a greater interest in the work than Ella L. Wills, who holds the position of state assistant department inspector.

Last week Miss Wills visited orders at Oregon and Evansville. On Thursday night of this week she will visit the corps at Monroe.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the regular meeting will take place at G. A. R. hall and a large attendance is desired.

Dogs Sold in Paris.

Chickens are sold in pairs in Buenos Ayres. They are dressed before being offered for sale, the only feathers left upon them being those of the tail. The same custom prevails in China as to dogs, where a bit of the dog's hair is always left on the end of the tail, even when the animal is cooked. But this is because the Chinese consider the flesh of the black dog the best and most certain to put a brave spirit into the body of the eater.

ALDERMEN HERE FROM ROCKFORD

IN JANESVILLE INSPECTING THE PHONE LINES.

Independent Company to Be Started in the Forest City Similar to the Bower City—Frank Bills Interested—Five Hundred Dollar Wager Made By Opposing Parties.

Aldermen from the city of Rockford, Illinois, were in Janesville Saturday inspecting the workings of the two local telephone systems. Rockford is advocating the placing of a new telephone system and the main object in bringing the Forest City aldermen here was to show them how a new and independent company can thrive when competing against the Bell system as operated by the Wisconsin Telephone company.

The same parties who placed the Bower City exchange in Janesville are now in Rockford trying to interest the minded men of that city with a like proposition. Frank Bills is the leading figure in this new system for Rockford and he is the same fat and jolly Bills that made the new system here a paying investment.

The visiting aldermen were shown over the city and were dined at the Hotel Myers. They expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the new telephone exchange in Janesville and said they did not see why one should not thrive in Rockford.

Following are the Rockford city fathers who were here: Aldermen Shepherd, Nash, Johnson, Gallagher and Duon.

ANOTHER ADVANCE IN OILS

Local Grocers Say That the Standard Oil Company Are to Blame.

Illuminating oil has advanced three cents per gallon in Madison, and the full amount of the raise goes to Rockefeller of the Standard Oil company, as the local grocers and oil wagon men have simply put up the price to protect themselves. As one of the oil wagon men has put it, "oil has risen because the company that owns all the oil wells has put up the price, and we has to get even." The dealers are now demanding 12 cents per gallon in place of 9 and 10 cents, and have increased the price of five gallon lots from 40 and 45 cents to 55 cents.

HOW DEWEY WON HIS BRIDE.

The Story of the Admiral's Long Distance Courtship. Wooded a Charming Widow.

By ANNETTE CRAWFORD.

It was after this manner that Admiral Dewey won his bride. It was a long distance courtship. Most of it was conducted across an ocean and two continents.

When he left for the Asiatic station, Mrs. Mildred B. Hazen, the lady who has consented to be his bride, was merely one of his very good friends. He had known her almost from childhood, being an old friend of the McLean family. He admired her ready wit and always found pleasure in her society, but this was all.

While at Hongkong he received several casual letters from Mrs. Hazen containing news about mutual friends. Immediately following the battle of Manila Mrs. Hazen sent an enthusiastic cablegram. The admiral, hitherto known only as a modest gentleman and an efficient naval officer, evidently became Mrs. Hazen's hero.

Cablegrams were exchanged frequently, and letters to and from were described as having two paper chains, the links of which grew closer as the time for the admiral's return approached. When he set sail from Manila, he sent cables and letters at every port where the Olympia touched, and the gossip is that he received almost as many as he dispatched. About this time Mrs. Hazen's photograph was given a conspicuous place on the walls of his stateroom.

The offer of Mrs. McLean's house for the admiral's temporary use when he arrived in Washington reached him at Gibraltar, and the invitation and its acceptance are regarded as an eloquent commentary on the rapid progress of the courtship by letter. When Dewey reached the McLean house the night of his arrival at the capital, Mrs. Hazen was the first to greet him.

After a brief welcome from Mrs. McLean the two ladies departed for the

MRS. MILDRED HAZEN.

McLean country place in Woodley lane. The next morning the first note the admiral received was from Mrs. Hazen.

At the recent Metropolitan club dinner the floral decorations were numerous and beautiful. The admiral selected the most gorgeous basket, called a club messenger and instructed him with great care to "take these flowers to Mrs. McLean's house and present them with my compliments."

Just when and how the momentous question was asked and answered are secrets which of course have not been revealed. You may be sure, however, that the admiral did not hesitate when the time came any more than he did when he sailed past the forts of Corregidor.

Mrs. Hazen is the widow of Brigadier General William B. Hazen, who died in 1897 while filling the post of chief signal officer in Washington. He, too, was a hero. He was noted as the conqueror of the Apaches, and he was a prominent officer on Buell's staff during the civil war.

Mrs. Hazen's father was Washington McLean, the founder of the Cincinnati Enquirer. Her maiden name was Mildred McLean. Her mother, Mrs. Washington McLean, has long been a resident of Washington, where she is reckoned as one of the social leaders. Mrs. Hazen was married when she was 10. This was in 1872. Therefore she is now 46 years old. The admiral will soon be 62.

The first years of her married life Mrs. Hazen passed with her husband on the western frontier. Her first child, a little girl, died during a long journey through the Indian country, and Mrs. Hazen rode all one day in an ambulance with the dead child in her arms. It was experiences such as these which streaked her brown hair with gray. Her only son was killed about 18 months ago by a fall from a horse.

Mrs. Hazen is about the same height as the admiral. She is plump and has a very fine figure. Her chief charm, aside from her sparkling eyes and smile, is a profusion of auburn brown hair, faintly tinged with gray and relled high from her forehead. An Episcopalian originally, Mrs. Hazen became a convert to Catholicism several years ago and, while not a zealot, professes the religion.

KENTUCKY VOTE IS CLOSE.

The Official Count May Fall—Changes Due to Rejections.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 13.—The official count of the vote for governor has been in progress two days and the official returns from a large majority of the 119 counties have narrowed the contest down to a nose finish. Each side claims the election of its ticket, but the estimated plurality of either does not exceed 3,000.

While the returns so far received favor Taylor, the result of the count may hinge on the decision given by the county election commissioners in several places where contests have been begun on the ground of alleged irregularities. One of these contests—that in Nelson county—has been decided adversely to the republicans. It involves 1,198 votes—nearly as many as either side claims as its plurality.

The democrats will contest the votes of some of the mountain counties which returned large republican pluralities. The most important county involved is Knox, which gave Taylor 1,338 plurality. There are also contests in three precincts in Louisville which went republican.

It is difficult to see how a bitter contest before the legislature and the courts can be avoided. All the contests now being considered by the county election officers will have to be argued before the state board of election commissioners, which must meet at Frankfort within a month. Both sides are preparing for this with all the legal talent at their command.

In the meanwhile everything hangs on the official count, which may consume a large portion of this week.

GEN. PAREDES SURRENDERS.

Hundreds Perish in Battle—Puerto Rico a Scene of Devastation.

Puerto Cabello, Nov. 13.—Gen. Paredes, a former commander in the army of ex-President Andrade, who had refused the demand made upon him by Gen. Cipriano Castro and the de facto authorities to surrender the town, even when this was re-enforced by the request of the British, American, French, German and Dutch commanders, surrendered Sunday morning at 10 o'clock after a terrible battle.

The aspect of the city is one of ruin and devastation and it is estimated that upward of 650 persons were killed or wounded during the fighting.

Dr. Braisted of the United States cruiser Detroit, and the other surgeons of the various warships in the harbor, are ministering to the wants of the wounded.

Chicago May Be Selected.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 13.—Col. C. W. F. Dick, chairman of the republican state committee and secretary of the national committee, will go to Washington the latter part of this week or the week following to shape up the business of the national committee in readiness for the meeting which Chairman Hanna will call for the middle of December. At that meeting the time and place of holding the next national convention will be determined. Col. Dick is of the opinion that the convention will be held early in the summer of next year and will be given to some western city. Chicago seems to have the call, but there are at least a score of cities bidding for the honor. Among them are Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Denver, San Francisco and Omaha.

RABBIT A LA CHASSEUR.—Cut the rabbit into small joints as follows: First, take off the hind legs even with the loin, then remove the shoulders, split the head into halves, divide the loins into six pieces, trim these neatly without waste and place them in a saute pan with two bunches of clarified butter, pepper and salt. Fry them of a light brown color with rather a brisk fire and add a tablespoonful of chopped fine herbs, consisting of mushrooms, truffles, parsley and shallots; then put the lid on and set the rabbit over a slow fire for about ten minutes, turning it over once. Remove the grease, add a large ladleful of cullis sauce, some scallops of mushrooms and truffles, two dozen small quenelles of rabbit, a small piece of game, a little mignon and the juice of half a lemon; simmer the whole together on a stove fire for three minutes, then pile up the pieces of rabbit in the dish, arrange the ragout over them in groups and pour the sauce over this entree.

END OF THE WORLD.

Scientist Figures That It Is Three Billion Years Old.

Scientists do queer things sometimes. One of them has attempted to calculate in cold mathematics how soon we may expect the judgment day, and he has prepared a paper on the subject which he expects to read before the American Association for the Advancement of Science, says the New York Herald. Starting with the total amount of energy stored in the sun and the fact that the orb of day is continuously distributing energy equivalent to the work of seven men for each area of the earth's surface of the size of the human body, our statistician calculates that it will require 3,375,000,000 years of outpouring before a sensible diminution of the quantity of energy given out can be detected. Up to this distant period mountains will stand, rivers will run, plants will grow, and animal life will exist very much as it does today. If you realize that solar energy, as soon as used, reasserts itself in some other form, either as sound, electricity or simple motion, it is easy to see that this estimate is too small rather than too great. At any rate, the world is not liable to stop going for a few years yet, according to his reasoning. Some idea of the vastness of the force that is meted out to us from the physical source of earthly life may be gained, he says, by considering that if the energy that the sun gives to the earth in a single day could be bottled up and directed against Niagara Falls it would cause that great body of water to dash back again up hill for 4,000 years. If turned into a single blast of heat it would cause every living creature to instantaneously blight and wither; the ice around the poles would be melted in one and three-quarter minutes, and in another eleven seconds all the oceans would be turned into steam. If transmitted into electricity a spark would flash from the earth as far as the planet Jupiter. If collected into a single sound the vibration thereof would not only break every eardrum in the world, but would uproot the giant trees of the forest and even level mountains. If changed into a momentary flash of light its burst would be so blinding as to penetrate the walls of the deepest dungeons and destroy the sight of every living creature. In brilliancy this flash would exceed the brightness of the sun itself over a million times. For one man to expend an amount of energy equivalent to that which the earth receives from the sun in the tenth part of a second he would have to work hard continuously for 87,000,000 years. This calculation is remarkable in that its result differs by more than 3,374,000,000 years from the period when scientists generally believe that the world will come to an end. Such experts as Darwin and Huxley believed that it could not sustain less than two million years hence.

Results Reported at Recent Tuberculosis Congress in Berlin.

Surgeon J. C. Boyd of the navy, one of the delegates to the recent tuberculosis congress in Berlin, is preparing a report for the United States navy department on the work of the congress. Dr. Boyd thinks the results of the congress will be important. The chief question interesting the profession is the preparation of an effective serum to combat the disease. The most promising work in this connection is that of Dr. Behring, one of the most prominent of the European specialists. The results obtained by Dr. Behring have attracted the attention of the medical world and are being pushed as rapidly as is consistent with careful scientific work. The profession sees no reason why the development of the tuberculosis serum should not revolutionize the mortality rate in consumption as much as has the development of the anti-toxine of diphtheria. The development of consumptive sanitariums in Europe is another matter that has attracted much interest among the profession on this side of the Atlantic. It is assured that the disease in its earlier stages can be checked. With the building up of the patient's general condition he is less liable to a recurrence of the disease after leaving the institution, even if the lung tissues already destroyed cannot be replaced. Even in advanced stages the disease can be so checked that an individual may, with care and a good climate, live out his allotted span with only a fraction of the lung area possessed by a normal subject. Preparations are being made for the establishment of a consumptive ranch in the high and dry region of the southwestern states for the benefit of the merchant marine. There is a large percent of consumptives in this service, though there is little trouble with it in the navy, the physical examination there weeding out practically all suspicious cases before they enter the service. The chief objection to the location, as planned, for the marine sanitarium is the long distance inland, making the transportation of invalids difficult and expensive. Good results are expected, however, from the new venture.
